About Kilconquhar Castle

Seldom does one encounter a country estate so truly impressive as that of Kilconquhar Castle Estate, situated in an elevated position between St Andrews and Edinburgh. Our very own village nestling in the beautiful East Neuk of Fife, Kilconquhar Castle is a world away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

Kilconquhar Estate is set in 130 acres of beautiful woodlands and manicured gardens, the Castle was first built in 1266 on the lands of Adam of Kilconquhar, Earl of Carrick. Later in the reign of King James the V, it became the seat of the Earl of Lindsay's, throughout history the Castle has entertained many famous characters, including Robert Bruce—father of the great 'Robert the Bruce'.

The village of Kilconquhar offers an exquisite church to hold your wedding ceremony which is only a 2 minute drive away. Alternatively make use of our civil wedding licence and enjoy your wedding ceremony in our ancestral Lindsay Room or on the manicured lawns of our enchanting gardens.

Your wedding reception and evening dance can be held in either The Lindsay Room or our Luxury Marquee, both offering something diverse and extraordinary in their own way.

From the moment you step through the doorway into the main castle building, you enter the flagstone foyer and pass the intricately carved doors into the baronial Lindsay Room with its 16th century oak panelled walls, ornate ceiling and large open stone fireplace. The Lindsay room caters for 10 to 60 guests during the day and a further 20 in the evening, the Lindsay Room is an unforgettable venue for your wedding reception.

The Marquee is perfect for the larger occasion, our luxury marquee lined with champagne silk is a stunning and elegant venue. With full amenities and luxury carpet throughout, the marquee glistens courtesy of the sparkling chandeliers that twinkle above our hardwood dance floor where 200 guests can share the experience of your bespoke wedding.

An Intimate Wedding

There are times when what really counts are the people who are the closest to us whether they are family or close friends. Our intimate wedding package offers the opportunity to bring these people together to share in your joy and make your wedding day magical.

Accommodation

Kilconquhar Castle has a collection of units, each with their own unique attributes, which blend harmoniously with the natural surroundings of the estate.

There are two and three bedroom Castle Suites, some of which enjoy the individual features such as turrets, four poster beds, even a dungeon. There are also Historical Cottages that have been sympathetically restored with décor and accessories carefully chosen to complement the period features that have been retained. Views of the manicured grounds can be enjoyed from our two, three or four bedroom units which are located in over 120 acres of our estate.

Each of the properties are equipped with TVs, DVD, music system, telephone, towels, fully equipped kitchen which includes dishwasher, microwave and washer/dryer and most have a Jacuzzi bath. Four bedroom units also have the added luxury of a private sauna room for you to enjoy at your leisure. There are a number of premier properties, all of which are three bedrooms and their features include conservatory, barbecue area, sauna utility room, the most exquisite have hot tubs rather than saunas in the private decked area at the rear of the property.

We have a range of country club rooms available for our wedding guests which are all on suite and sleep 2 people per room. Our accommodation is dealt with by our Reservations Department who you can contact by emailing rentals@kilconquharcastle.co.uk or by telephoning 01333 340501.

Available Facilities

Whilst staying on the Estate you can also make use of the swimming pool, saunas, badminton courts, tennis courts, snooker tables, fully equipped gymnasium, putting greens and our driving range. All of these activities are included in the price of your stay.

If you would like to relax and enjoy a massage the following day before you leave we have an in house aromatherapist who can attend to your needs. Bookings for this service are made separately and are not included in the price of your accommodation or wedding package.
